THE GILBERTS .- The New York Gilberts appeared at the Theatre last night for the first time, and were welcomed by a fair auhowever, with the merits of the company. The Gilberts were happily introduced to our people by their excellent presentation of an old but ever popular comedy-"My Uncle's Will"-in which Miss Belle Gilbert appeared as Florence Marigold, Mr. James Gilbert as Charles Cashmare, and Mr. David R. Young as Mr. Barker. It was quite refreshing to see once more a comedy well menced: "How many of you have wives?" played at our Theatre; and very early in Two or three nodded. Water dent that the contest for the fourth piace on the House ticket was between Messrs. James Lyons, Jr., T. Wiley Davis, and William L. Royall, the friends of these gentlemen became very industrious and brought up voters to the polls with astonishing rate pidity. The vote polled was smaller than expected, notwithstanding the interest and lay before our City Council the matter felt by the people generally was great. All of the candidates being good men, there was on the part of many reluctance to strike off names, and this will undoubtedly account for the failure to vote of some bundreds. Two or three days previous it was commonly thought that the aggregate in the city would be 2,800 or 3,000 votes. "Straight shots" were indulged in (in city and county) to a considerable account. The following statement shows the state of the polls at 21 o'clock P. M., and the same. table below it gives the vote at the close of

The City Committee met last night and canvassed the vote as above, and resolved that if any person desires to contest he shall notify Superintendent Gray by 6 P. M. to-day, and in such event the Committee will meet to-morrow evening for a recount. This applies to the House. The declaration of nominees for the Senate is left entirely to Superintendent Gray and Superintendent Holladay, of Henrico. Dr. Riddell wishes it stated that he withdrew from the contest about 2 o'clock yesterday. County Returns.

The returns at hand from the county are meagre. Mr. Atkinson, however, received twice as many votes there as Mr. Henry and Mr. Pulliam combined. The nomination of dessrs. Henry and Atkinson is conceded. It seems that Mr. Hopkins leads for the House, but it will take official returns to decide. They ought all to be in to-day. The following are partial returns:
